

This database contains a lot of data. The data has been filtered and presented in different ways. There are different documents explaining how this database can be used. However, for a novice user, we advise that you start with the basics by downloading this simple tutorial document and then proceed with the more advanced stuff.

Also remember to visit our FAQs section to know more about the database and how it can benefit you. This is a live database and it will keep changing as more enterprises are added.

For any queries, please send an email to admin@nids.mtic.g.ug and we shall happily help you.

Thank you.

The NIDS Team.
